

EDUCATIONAL COURSES AND RESOURCES FOR PARENTS TO SUPPORT THEIR SON / DAUGHTERS LEARNING AT HOME

Education:

1. <http://www.jumpstart.com/parents/resources>

This website contains a range of educational resources for parents and students in a range of subjects make the process of learning and teaching a lot easier and more fun for everyone. It includes advice, ideas, resources and strategies for parents to enable parents to support their child's learning at home. It also contains a range of fun activities and ideas in a range of subjects, levels and grades to ensure all students can enhance their learning experience. (It covers all elements of education across Year 1- Year 12)

2. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/parents/>

This is a very useful website for parents, containing a variety of education activities and ideas to support with your child's learning at home. It also contains a range of links to resources, information and courses available especially for parents. This is a great resource to have as parents as it support with all aspects of your child's learning.

3. <http://www.moorhouseschool.co.uk/uploads/Parent%20Workshops/Parent%20Workshop%20Programme%201617.pdf>

Training - Link to the Moor House website containing all of the information regarding our parental workshops. There is a range of workshops throughout the year to support and offer advice on how you can support your child's learning at home. The strategies used at Moor House and how best to incorporate these strategies at home.

Safeguarding your child:

1. <https://www.kidscape.org.uk/training/safeguarding-and-child-protection/>

Information regarding a variety of training workshops and online training courses relating to safeguarding your child.

2. <http://www.moorhouseschool.co.uk/uploads/important-docs/2015>.

Link to the Moor house School and College Child Protection policy.

Keeping your child safe online:

1. <https://www.kidscape.org.uk/training/e-safety-and-cyber-bullying/>

Online training course/ opportunity for parents on keeping your child safe online and preventing cyber bullying.

2. <http://www.moorhouseschool.co.uk/parent-area>

Useful links and Parent Information on the Moor House website with useful information about keeping children safe online.

- Think U Know website also has e-safety information, please click here <https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/parents/>
- CEOP website has important resources as well, please click here <https://www.ceop.police.uk/>
(parents would need to register for access)

3. <http://www.childprotectioncompany.com/CPC/esafety-schools#b3>

An online e-Safety training course, specifically for parents and carers, designed to assist schools in engaging parents in the e-Safety message.

It gives an introduction to e-Safety and awareness of:

- The risks to children
- The Internet predator
- Inappropriate and illegal images/content
- Cyberbullying
- Sexting
- Identity theft
- Steps parents can take to protect their children
- Where to go for help and further information

Important topics/ Training Opportunities:

Consent:

1. <http://www.familylives.org.uk/>

This is a great website to use as a parent if you would like to access resources, activities, strategies and videos to discuss the idea of Consent with your child at Home. It also offers a facility where parents can get free advice on any topic/ question relating to their children.

Sex Education:

2. <http://www.bbc.co.uk/barefacts/>

The site provided tips for parents on how to talk with their children about sex, love and relationships

Cyber/ online Bullying:

3. <http://www.beatbullying.org/>

Great website for parents to enable you to discuss with your child at home what bullying is, cyber bullying and linking to online bullying. What parents need to look out for and how you can support your child.

4. <https://www.childline.org.uk/info-advice/bullying-abuse-safety/types-bullying/>

Lots of advice and support and advice for parents with a particular focus on cyber and online bullying.

5. <https://www.kidscape.org.uk/advice/advice-for-parents-and-carers/>

Advice and guidance to parents on online/ cyber bullying, the growing concern for our young people. How to help your child to stay safe online and not become a target? How to help your child report and talk about cyber bullying?

We offer online and telephone advice, guidance and support to parents, carers and family members who are concerned about their child or young person being bullied in person or over social platforms and phones.

The service is also available in three additional languages: Hindi, Gujarati and Urdu.

Call 020 7823 5430 (Mon-Tues, 10am-5pm)

6. <https://www.kidscape.org.uk/training/anti-bullying-training/>

Online training course for parents regarding cyber bullying.

Parents Online Together:

7. <http://www.familylives.org.uk/how-we-can-help/online-parenting-courses/parents-together/>

Why not access our online and innovative Parents Together Programme. Based on our thirty years' experience working with parents and families and at your own pace, you can work through our six interactive blocks filled with helpful techniques and ideas that we know will help you become a more confident and happy parent.

Modules on the course:

- Promoting wellbeing
- The power of communicating and being positive
- Understanding behaviour
- Managing and promoting positive behaviour in the family
- Play and what do children need
- Setting limits, boundaries and promoting co-operation

Positive Parenting Academy:

8. <http://www.theparentpractice.com/online-courses>

Welcome to The Positive Parenting Academy – online parenting skills training from The Parent Practice.

With the online programme you have access to the quality guidance for which we are renowned. Learning online is convenient – you can work through the modules of the Positive Parenting Academy Programme at your own pace, when and where you like. And you'll have access to the parent training programme materials – forever.

Parental Well-being:

9. <http://www.nofamstress.com/>

The Family Stress Management Online Training is a free Internet service for parents and educators who are engaged with children from 1 to 16 years of age. Take part in Online Parent Training and improve your capacity to handle stress connected to raising children– to be able to prevent or to manage periodic difficulties.

Useful links/ information:

10. <http://www.moorhouseschool.co.uk/useful-links>

Here you will find links to information about language impairments and providing support for a child.

- RALLI - Raising Awareness of Language Learning Impairments YouTube Channel. Free films for parents, professionals and children about language difficulties. The channel features some Moor House students, ex-students and parents.

www.youtube.com/rallicampaign

- SLICEN – Clinical Excellence Network on Specific Language Impairment

Follow the group on twitter or find out more on the CEN pages on the Moor House website or follow on twitter: <https://twitter.com/SurreySLICEN>

- RCSLT -Royal College of Speech & Language Therapists

For more information about Speech& Language Therapy and your local service in UK

www.rcslt.org

- MHS&C SLI information for parents

See the Moor House SLI Information page for information and links for parents

- Moor House YouTube channel

View our films about Moor House and from the SLI debate www.youtube.com/MoorHouseSch

We sincerely hope you find the above links and signpost to resources and training opportunities useful in supporting your child at home.

Any suggestions or recommendations, please do not hesitate to contact us at your earliest convenience as we highly value parental feedback.